

Announcing a CALL FOR POETRY. Deadline: May 1, 2021!

The Duluth Dylan Fest Planning Committee announces a poetry contest to celebrate Bob Dylan's 80th birthday (May 24, 2021). All entries must use one of two titles: "Miles from Home" or "Changing Course." Two grand prize winners will be selected, one for each title, and the two best runner-up poems for each title will also be chosen. The point of the contest is to celebrate Dylan's life, music, writing, artistry – in short, some aspect of Bob Dylan's 80 years – using one of these two overarching phrases as the title of your poem.

Two grand prize winners will each receive $200 and be the featured poems at a poetry reading during the week of the Duluth Dylan Fest. The two runner-up poems for each of the two titles will receive $50 and will also be read at the poetry event as well. Two or three additional contestants may be invited to read their poems at the reading and will receive gift certificates.

Poems must be in doc or docx format.

Poems must be in regular 12-pt Times New Roman font.

Poems must be double-spaced and fit on one 8.5 x 11 page.

Personal identification must not appear anywhere in the manuscript.

Poems must be submitted between March 1, 2021 and May 1, 2021.

A $15 reading fee must accompany each poem. Multiple poems may be entered, but each poem must be submitted separately and accompanied by the $15 entry fee.

Poems and entry fee must be postmarked and mailed not later than May 1, 2021 to:
